Parker (89 Punkte): "...One-hundred percent Merlot, the 2000 reveals aromas of blackberry liqueur intermixed with cocoa, espresso, and licorice in its medium to full-bodied, concentrated, lush personality. From such a lowly regarded terroir, this wine should drink beautifully for 5-7 years. A revelation".

Parker (89 Punkte): "...This is the debut vintage of this old vine Merlot (about 70%) with the balance equal parts Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc. It is a full-bodied, dense, concentrated, serious wine that may deserve an outstanding score. It should drink well for at least a decade. Impressive!"

| Parker (91 Punkte): "...One of the most attractively priced of the so-called garage wines of St.-Emilion, this is always a sexy, heady effort offering a concoction of melted chocolate, jammy black cherry fruit, cassis, licorice, and smoke. The 2001 exhibits notions of cherry liqueur, chocolate, and espresso roast. It is an expressive, lush, savory wine to drink now and over the next 10-12 years." | | | | | | | |

| Parker (90 Punkte): "...This elegant, intensely fruity 2001 reveals good structure and purity. Although somewhat closed and muted, it is an excellent 2001 that may not yet be revealing its full personality. It should age well for 10-15 years. An ambitious project by Christian Dauriac (the proprietor of several St.-Emilion properties, most notably Destieux), this 7.5 acre vineyard, partially situated on the famous blue clay of Pomerol, is planted with 85% Merlot and 15% Cabernet Franc. The wine is fermented in small, Burgundian-like, 35 hectoliter oak tanks, and enjoys malolactic in barrel. Yields are 20 hectoliters per hectare" | | | | | | | |

| Parker (87-89 Punkte): "...Made by the son of the former proprietor of Cheval Blanc, this St.-Emilion performed well in my tastings, avoiding the over-extracted, dry, hard, pinched finish found in many of its 2002 peers. It offers a deep ruby/purple color as well as excellent texture, medium body, sweet cassis and cherry fruit, nicely integrated wood, and a smooth finish. Drink it between 2006-20"4" | | | | | | | |
| 3390 | 2003 | Clos les Lunelles | Côtes de Castillon | 0,75 | 78 | 31,90 | 26,90 |
| Parker (92 Punkte): "...This 21+ acre vineyard planted on a clay and limestone plateau consists of 38-year-old Merlot (80%), Cabernet Franc (10%), and Cabernet Sauvignon (10%). It was acquired by Gerard and Chantal Perse in 2001, and in less than two years has become the reference point winery for the Cotes de Castillon ... not surprising in view of the commitment to excellence exhibited by the Perses. Made from tiny yields of less than 20 hectoliters per hectare, the blockbuster 2003 tips the scales at 13.5% alcohol. It reveals a peppery, spicy, incense-laced bouquet interwoven with black cherry jam, blackberry, and cassis-like aromas. Full-bodied, opulent, long, rich, and persistent, it is the finest wine I have ever tasted from the Cotes de Castillon. Enjoy it over the next 10-15 ye"rs" | | | | | | | |

|-------|------|---------------------------------------|------------------------------|-------------|------------|--------------|--------------|

Parker (93 Punkte): „...The 2001 Bricco Manzoni (80% Nebbiolo, 20% Barbera) is another terrific effort from Rocche dei Manzoni. It presents that rare combination of superb concentration without heaviness in its ripe dark Barbera-dominated fruit, while the Nebbiolo contributes to the wine's aromatics and structure. The use of oak is also more elegant than has been the case in previous vintages. Anticipated maturity: 2007- 2018.

Rocche dei Manzoni is an estate whose Barolos I have tended to underrate when young, but then always enjoyed immensely with bottle age. The estate's Barolos are made in a sleek, modern style, with 100% new French oak aging. The wines typically require some bottle age to absorb their oak component. In time, the wines always express the qualities of their respective Monforte terroirs. I have consistently been thrilled with how vintages like 1978, 1982 and 1989 have developed, and only wish I had a deeper collection of the wines in my cellar. Rodolfo Migliorini is one of the few producers who decided not to bottle his single-vineyard selections in 2003, opting instead for a blend, which has turned out to be one of the highlights of the vintage. Migliorini has told me on several occasions, however, that he considers his 2002 Barolo Rocche (also a blend) to have more potential for development over time because it is a fresher wine. I also include notes on the 2001 Barolos which were completely shut down when I tasted them last year. Lastly, readers should not look past the estate's more accessible wines, the best of which are noteworthy and deserving of close consideration. Rocche dei Manzoni produces one of the best champagne-style wines in Italy“

| 7825 | 2003 | Brunello di M. "Tenuta Nova" | Casanova di Neri | 0,75 | 63 | 39,90 | 29,90 |

Parker (92 Punkte): “...Casanova di Neri's 2003 Brunello di Montalcino Tenuta Nuova caresses the palate with plenty of silky-textured dark red cherries, plums, smoke, earthiness and sweet toasted oak. This polished modern-styled wine offers superb balance in a rich, weighty style that will find many admirers. The tannins are remarkably well-integrated, which is quite a feat in this vintage. To be sure, there isn't much of what could be called varietal character here but by any definition this is a beautiful wine on an absolute level. The Tenuta Nuova spent 30 months in 600-liter barrels, of which 35% were new. Anticipated maturity: 2009-2019.

Proprietor Giacomo Neri is excited about the 2003 vintage, which he believes has more potential than critics of the vintage have suggested, although he does think the wines are best suited to near- to mid-term consumption. Among recent vintages Neri cites 2004 and 2006 as those with the most potential. Still, at this level, it is truly the seriousness of the estate that prevails over vintage differences in determining the overall quality of the wines, as readers will be able to judge from these outstanding new releases“

|------|------|-------------------------------|-------------------------|-------------|-----------|--------------|--------------|

Made from 70% Cabernet Sauvignon and 30% Cabernet Franc grown in estate vineyards in Umbria. Marciliano has a profound dark purple color and exhibits complex aromas of tobacco and slate. This wine is a great representation of Cabernet when all of nature's forces are working together. Layers of fruit are evident on the nose and on the palate, while the tannins are expressive without being too aggressive.

"Here is a knockout wine from one of Italy's most talented enologists, Riccardo Cotarella, that delivers classic Cabernet green notes followed by bursting tones of blackberry, tobacco, toasted coconut flakes, apple pie crust and ... distant hints of black licorice. The aromatic complexity is stellar and so is the velvety mouthfeel; a genuine crowd pleaser."

| Parker (94 Punkte): "...The 2004 Langhe Conteisa, from vineyards in La Morra, is especially dark-toned and rich in this vintage. Made in an uncharacteristically weighty, opulent style for this wine, it reveals plenty of ripe dark fruit, spices, new leather, licorice and tar. Sweet, long and richly-textured, it is just plain awesome in its display of generous, vibrant fruit, tar, smoke, minerals and herbs. It is the finest Costa Russi yet. It is the most nuanced of these single-vineyard offerings, with gorgeous notes of tar, smoke, roses, violets, sweet toasted oak and earthiness that emerge from the glass in a counterpoint of sublime elegance and stunning purity. It possesses superb length and elegant, silky tannins to round out the finish. This extraordinary Sori Tildin will require at least a few years of bottle age, but it is destined to be one of the vintage's legendary wines. Anticipated maturity: 2014-2024 | | | | | | | |

This is a remarkably refined and understated Sori San Lorenzo, with never-ending layers of dark raspberries, licorice, grilled herbs and tar that flow from its sumptuous frame. A dark, brooding beauty, it will require several additional years of bottle at a minimum, but those with the patience to wait will be amply rewarded. In most vintages I prefer the Sori Tildin, but in 2004 Sori San Lorenzo has a very slight edge over its sibling. It may very well be the finest Sori San Lorenzo since the legendary 1971. Weine aus einem Speditionsunfall

Sehr geehrte Kunde, liebe Weinfreunde, viele von Ihnen haben von dem schrecklichen Unfall gehört, welchen die Spedition Schenker Ende Mai hatte 2009. Der LKW war wegen einem Schaden ordnungsgemäß auf dem Seitenstreifen abgestellt und gesichert. Ein LKW einer anderen Spedition fuhr ungebremst in das abgestellte Fahrzeug. Fahrer und Beifahrer dieses LKW kamen bei dem Unfall ums Leben. Tragischerweise Vater und Sohn. Neben nur wenig anderer Ware hatte der Schenker-LKW vor allem Weine der Bacchus Vinothek geladen. Insgesamt 9 Paletten überwiegend hochwertiger 2005er Bordeaux (Margaux, L'Eglise Clinet, ...) und vor allem auch viele Großformate. Ich konnte im Prinzip alle Weine wiederbeschaffen. Allerdings kam für mich nur ein Kauf in 1. Hand in Frage – das bedeutet in Bordeaux. Nur aufgrund meiner sehr guten Beziehungen zu den Familien Sichel (Palmer), Barton (Leoville-Barton), usw. konnten die Weine überhaupt nochmals beschafft werden. Mein ganz besonderer Dank gilt hier Denis Durantou (L'Eglise Clinet). Seine Lieferung wurde im Prinzip komplett zerstört. Darunter waren bspw. 180 Fl. L'Eglise Clinet und vor allem alle Formate von Mag bis Imperial. Der Wein hatte 100 Parkerpunkte bekommen und der Preis war binnen weniger Wochen explodiert und überall ausverkauft. Er hat einzelne Großformate von seiner Familie für mich zurückgekauft, um den Schaden auszugleichen. Somit war das Problem der Wiederbeschaffung ein rein finanzielles. Aber alle meine Kunden haben letztendlich den Wein bekommen, welchen sie auch en primeur orderten – und zwar direkt aus Bordeaux.

Natürlich wurden bei dem Unfall aber nicht alle Flaschen zerstört und es konnten rund 1000 Flaschen durch mich geborgen werden. Allerdings hat die Staatsanwaltschaft die Brücke (Hänger) wegen der Todesfälle beschlagnahmt und die Weine durften erst nach knapp 4 Tagen geborgen werden. Der Unfall geschah Ende Mai und es war schon recht warm. Ich habe etliche Weine verkostet und konnte in ihrer Jugend keinerlei Beeinträchtigung feststellen. Allerdings haben die meisten Flaschen beschädigte oder verschmutzte Etiketten. Sollten die Weine Schaden genommen haben, so zeigt sich dies sicher erst zu einem viel, viel späteren Zeitpunkt. Ich habe nun beinahe ein halbes Jahr mit der Versicherung gestritten, um die Weine übernehmen zu können. Denn die Versicherung hätte die Weine über einen Havarieverwerter in den freien Verkauf gebracht. Das konnte ich nicht zulassen. So haben wir uns letzten Endes auf einen Preis geeinigt, welcher es mir erlaubt, Ihnen die Weine mit einem unglaublichen Preisnachlass anbieten zu können. Die meisten Preise liegen nun 30 bis 35% unter dem Marktpreis.

Ich habe die Weine in diesem Angebot und auch Ihrer späteren Rechnung mit einem S für Schenker/Schaden bezeichnet. Alle Flaschen sind nach bestem Wissen und Gewissen in den Umständen entsprechend gutem Zustand.

Alle Weine, welche Sie sich nicht sichern, werde ich mit großer Freude in meinen Keller legen.
