Medium to full-bodied, the palate absolutely explodes with vibrant red and black fruit bursts and tons of exotic spice accents, framed by super ripe, super firm tannins and a lovely line of freshness, finishing very long.

Vinous (Antonio Galloni) 94

Easily one of the most successful wine in Saint Estèphe in 2015, Cos d'Estournel is just gorgeous. Elements of exoticism appear on the bouquet, followed by generous black cherry, smoke, leather, licorice, menthol and mocha.

Full-bodied, tight and integrated with ultra-fine tannins and a beautiful finish. Lasts for minutes. Very, very Cos. Harmony. Texturally marvellous. Drink in 2024.

Vinous (Neal Martin) 94

The medium-bodied palate immediately impresses by its volume and depth, the new oak neatly embroidered with layers of tightly coiled tobacco and graphite infused fruit whose veins of earthiness betray its origins.

The image shows three bottles of Cos d'Estournel 2015 wine lying diagonally in a wooden crate. The labels are white with a detailed illustration of a castle at the top. The text on the labels includes 'GRAND CRU CLASSÉ EN 1855', 'COS D'ESTOURNEL', 'SAINT - ESTÈPHE', and '2015'. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the wood and the labels.

After eight years of bottle aging in our cellars, the wine has unfurled new dimensions.

Noble and voluptuous, Cos d'Estournel 2015 is the purest expression of its terroir, combining intense yet supple spice with refined aromatic complexity. It embodies all the characteristics of a great Cos d'Estournel, with spices that are at once intense and silky.
