

2020 Domäne Serrig – Vogelsang Grosse Lage

Reviews & Ratings

Robert Parker`s Wine Advocate: “[P]ure, deep and intense on the spectacularly fine, mineral and absolutely unique nose that reveals concentrated but elegant and spicy-mineral fruit with a coolish and herbal terroir expression. A show-stopping nose! [...] This is a wine made for decades and a new benchmark for dry-tasting Saar Rieslings.”

100/100

Yves Beck: “The wine has finesse, depth, vigour and an incredible capacity to create a connection between richness, straightness, bitterness and tension. A profound, savoury, silky and concise wine. It is impressive both for its power and its harmony and is made to last for decades to come!”

99/100

Vinous: “[...] Slaty verve and tension point to depth on this vertical, full-flavored yet exquisitely light wine with its lasting finish that echoes with salt, lemon zest and Slate. Absolutely straight-laced and elegant.”

96/100

James Suckling: “Super-cool and youthful for the hot and dry 2020 vintage [...]. Staggering vibrancy on the [...] palate that’s very focused, the concentration of wet stone minerality and lime character climbing precipitously at the very long, tensile finish.”

97/100

Markus Del Monego MW: “[...] Very elegant, concentrated and expressive nose, distinct minerality with typical slate character [...]. A whiff of mango and tropical fruit in the background [...]. The refined sweetness is perfectly well integrated and underlines an incredible length. A wine with an enormous ageing potential. Stunning!

99+/100

Drinks Business: “[...] Wow. The intensity on the attack is utterly amazing [...] – it comes as a shock that you can’t quite prepare yourself for. Quite simply brilliant and utterly unique. Eternal on the finish – the vanishing point is well over the next horizon! One of the most exciting wines I have tasted in recent years. I have goosepimples all over; a wine to heighten one’s senses.”
